

Visit of Fagagna and Spilimbergo

Among storks, ancient mosaics and typical tastes!

Welcomed by the flight of the storks of the Quadris Nature Reserve, discover the enchanting views that can be enjoyed from the hill with the castle ruins. "

At the Museum of Rural Life of Cjase Cocél, located in an old large rural stone cottage, you will discover the rites of rural life in Friuli at the beginning of the twentieth century and even the tradition of lace making.

In the afternoon, visit of Spilimbergo, the town of mosaic.

Spilimbergo, which in 2013 was awarded as the "Jewel of Italy" with 20 other Italian towns, takes its name from the Carinthian noble Spengenberg who settled here around the eleventh century.

The town developed around the old castle, originally called the 'girone' because of its circular form.
