

Visit of Gradisca d'Isonzo

In the heart of Collio!

Gradisca d'Isonzo, is an enchanting village, full of Renaissance palaces and public institutions. Here In 1500, Leonardo da Vinci was able to experience new techniques of defense, ensuring to the village protection and safety. Besides the architectural beauty, here are numerous culinary delights such as salami and cheeses, and the prized DOC wines produced by the many vines nestled in the rolling hills of the Collio, as Sauvignon, Merlot, Refosco and Pinot.

It was conceived and built as a fortified town. The Theatre is in the square and along the porticos you find the typical cafés where you can admire the park and the palazzos of Venetian and Asburgic origin.
